Remember Pin the Tail on the Donkey?

You have 10 kids coming to your house for your son's 5th birthday party – you have the food, decorations and favors all figured out – but how are you going to keep 10 boys entertained between the food and cake?
Answer: Party Games!!

I always play 2 or 3 games/activities when planning my parties. Staying with the theme of the party of course. One of those games is a Pin the X style game!

What's that? You remember Pin the Tail on the Donkey right? These games are the same concept. Pin the (whatever the game piece is) on the (main themed item).

For example:
Pin the TIRE on the MONSTER TRUCK! This has been one of my most popular games – especially for the 3-5 year boy birthday crew! The little boys love their monster trucks! The awesome party of these games is that they can be personalized with the birthday kids name and age turning and can be used later as an awesome memento from their birthday!

Pin the CLOUD on the RAINBOW! Another popular one! So fun and so cute! It even adds to the birthday décor!

Feed the BISCUIT to the PUPPY! Instead of a spot to pin the item, this one you feed the puppy! Fun and easy for even the littlest of kiddos.

To see all of my Pin the X games – go HERE! And if you don't see your theme – no worries! I would love to create a game just for you! I would also love theme suggestions for more games – I love creating them and love love love seeing the kiddos playing them at their parties!

jeni ro designs Party Tip: Where to print your printable game poster!

You ordered the perfect jeni ro designs printable game – but now where are you going to print the 20” x 30” game poster? Here are a few suggestions and resources – complete with pricing and timing.

Costco Photo (https://www.costcophotocenter.com/) – Costco Photo is by far my #1 recommendation for photo printing places. They can get your prints done in a few hours and the quality is fantastic. And you can't beat the price! $9.99 (before tax) for a 20" x 30" poster!! If you don't have a membership – find a friend that does and have them pick it up for you!! So easy to submit the photo online and pick up in store!! I can even send the poster to your Costco for you!!

Walmart (https://photos3.walmart.com) – Walmart has a website you can upload your photos to – and current pricing (as of this writing) – is $14.86 for a 20" x 30" poster. They can print same day as well. Call your local store for local pricing and delivery.

Walgreens (https://photo.walgreens.com) – Walgreens has same day photo printing in most locations and easy to use website. Current pricing for a 20"x 30" poster is $23.99. Call your local store for local pricing and delivery.

Sam's Club (https://photo.samsclub.com) – Sam's Club can print same day. 20" x 30" poster pricing is $9.96. Sam's Club is a membership store, but if you are already a member this is a great option for your poster printing!

Office Depot (https://www.officedepot.com/cm/print-and-copy/print-services) – While I love to use Office Depot for 8-1/2" x 11" color prints, they disappoint me with their poster pricing and options. They can do a 24" x 36" poster for $24.99. This is a larger size then the 20x30 the game posters come as – if this is your only option – I am happy to resize the poster for you!

Vistaprint (https://www.vistaprint.com) – Vistaprint is an online printer. They can print a 24" x 36" poster for $19.80 – but you can often get discount codes. This size would need to be cut down from the standard, or the file resized.

There may be other local photo processing place that can print 20” x 30” posters that I am not aware of, if you know of a local shop, I recommend giving them a call and asking about their pricing and turnaround for poster prints.

Happy Birthday to all the June babies!!
Hope you have a Fabulous Day!
