THE PARTY SPOT NEWSLETTER

December 2019

Special shout out to all the December babies! Have an awesome day celebrating YOU during the happiest time of the year!!

My nephew was born on Christmas Eve 3 years ago this year. It made that Christmas extra exciting (and a bit stressful) and my sister was wrought with Mommy guilt. Guilt that her older son was missing out on Christmas (he was 1-1/2) and guilt that now her youngest son's birthday would be forever competing with Christmas! I am sure those are the same worries of any parent with a child born around a giant holiday! But there are ways you can make both occasions special!
